

Deferment of Tuition Fees: Financing Policy

Students admitted to Vancouver School of Theology carry responsibility for the full payment of tuition, student, and residence fees. The registration process is not complete until all outstanding fees are paid. All financial obligations to the School must be paid before a degree can be conferred on a graduating student or before a student can register for a subsequent term.

In exceptional cases when a student is unable to pay tuition and fees by the date on which it is due (typically the end of the 4th week of each term) the student will:

1. Discuss their inability to meet the payment deadline with the Dean or Director of Indigenous Studies Program (for ISP students);
2. Receive permission from the Dean or Director of ISP to delay full payment, and agree upon a payment schedule;
3. Provide Accounting with a credit-card number, or, in cases where the student does not have a credit card, with post-dated cheques;
