VST Library Research Modules Calendar

Research Modules should be taken in a student's first year of study. The number of credits you can enroll in will be capped if you have not completed the required Research Modules.

Modules 1 – 4 are required for all diploma and degree students. These are non-credit, no-fee research modules in Information Literacy. The research modules will engage students in hands-on as well as theoretical work intended to develop knowledgeable, disciplined and critically astute researchers.

2025 Fall Term	Module 2 – Library Research	Saturday, Oct. 4, 9am - 12pm
	Module 3 – Paper Writing	Saturday, Oct. 4, 1pm - 4pm
	Module 5 – Thesis Proposal and Writing	Saturday, Oct. 18, 9am - 12pm
	Module 6 – Library Research for a Thesis	Saturday, Oct. 18, 1pm - 4pm
	Module 7 – Microsoft Word including Zotero	Saturday, Sep. 27, 9am - 12pm
2026 Spring Term	Module 1 – Indigenous Research	Wednesday, Jan. 21, 9am - 12pm
	Module 2 – Library Research	Saturday, Jan. 17, 1pm - 4pm
	Module 3 – Paper Writing	Saturday, Jan. 17, 9am - 12pm
	Module 4 – Research with Human Subjects	Monday pm in Spring Term

Please check the guidelines in the Student Handbook for additional Modules required for your degree (e.g. Modules 5 and 6 for anyone writing a thesis).

You can register for the Research Modules on Populi before the add/drop deadline (Second Friday after classes begin). After that, please contact the Library or Registrar to register.

Modules are 3 hrs each and presented online. Synchronous participation is recommended. Attendance is taken to confirm completion of each Module. If you are unable to participate synchronously due to extenuating circumstances, please make arrangements with the Library to confirm completion of the Module.
